SPORTHORSE TRAINING CENTRE
ORRTANNA, PENNSYLVANIA

2009 Spring Free Jumping Series
Saturday March 21 | Saturday April 4 | Saturday April 25

Individual Free Jumping Sessions are being offered to help owners introduce free jumping to young horses in a correct and safe manner. Each day is designed as a "hands-on" session with tips, do's & don'ts and ideas on: chute building, setting the handlers, assistants, and horse up for success, progress, and advancement, recognizing and implementing individually varying factors dependent upon the horse's confidence and talent. The series of dates are available to offer a progressive training plan. Suitable for horses and ponies age 3 years old and up. Each horse's session will run approximately 30 minutes. Horse will be scheduled by experience level and/ or fence height.

Mark Susol and Wendy Staub of Magic Rose Farm will be our handlers and instructors.

Benefits of Free Jumping:

- * Builds Horse's self-confidence * Develops body awareness * Strengthens and conditions *
- * Prepares horses for inspections * A useful part of a young horse's training program *
- * Opportunity to take green horses away from home in a low key, constructive atmosphere *
